

ROBERT K. WILSON, CPA, MBA, CGMA Chief Financial Officer, Genifuel Corporation

Robert has over 30 years' experience providing senior leadership, financial planning, reporting and organizational transformation as both an industry insider and consultant to the water and utilities, real estate, finance, manufacturing and information technology industries. He has significant expertise in strategic planning and implementation, governance risk and compliance including Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, enterprise risk management, internal audit and internal control design and implementation.

Prior to starting RK Consulting, Robert was a partner with Mazars USA where he led the water and utility sector group and the industrials sector group. Prior to Mazars he was a Partner with Grant Thornton, where he led the advisory services practices in New York and Boston. Robert was also Chief Financial Officer for American Water Services with over 1,800 employees and operations throughout the United States, as well as for two large telecommunications organizations with operations throughout the United States, Europe, Central Asia and Russia. He has also independently consulted with municipalities to evaluate their current water/wastewater operations and administration environment.

Robert has extensive experience in leading the development and execution of strategic plans and financial forecasting. He has also completed many projects to evaluate and identify potential areas for improvement within the finance, customer services, distribution, human resources and information technologies functions. These transformational engagements have resulted in significant cost reductions, increased service levels and enhanced operational performance.

During these projects, he works closely with organizations to develop a comprehensive implementation roadmap and timeline that includes extensive planning and project management to facilitate the cultural change required to ensure they achieve their strategic objectives.

Robert holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting from Lebanon Valley College and a Master of Business Administration from Monmouth University. He is a Certified Public Accountant in Pennsylvania and New York, a Chartered Global Management Accountant, a Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Institute of Internal Auditors and is a Six Sigma Green Belt.
